

District Vision

“Get a JUMP!”

Join, Understand, Model, Promote

- All students are connected to their community
- All students interact appropriately with others in a variety of settings and situations
- All students graduate.
- All students can succeed in college or a career.
- All students can read/write/listen/speak on or above grade level expectations
- All students are given equal access to multiple opportunities.
- All students are learning how to understand who they are, are reflective, and understand the context of their lives.
- All students are independent thinkers and learners.
- All students persist in overcoming challenges and obstacles, and know how to deal with success, failure, and conflict.
- All students are not afraid to take risks and meet challenges.
- All students challenge stereotypes for themselves and others.
- All students are eager to try to realize their potential and achieve their dreams.
